APPENDIX A TO THE BYLAWS OF CUPE LOCAL 15

RULES OF ORDER

1. The President, or in his/her absence the First Vice-President, shall take the chair at all membership meetings. In the absence of both the President and First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President shall act as chair. In the absence of the above three Officers, the Secretary Treasurer shall act as chair.
2. No member, except the chair of a committee making a report, or the mover of a resolution, shall speak more than five minutes or more than once on the same question without the consent of the meeting, or until all who wish to speak have had an opportunity. Chairs and movers of a resolution shall be limited to fifteen minutes except with the consent of the meeting.
3. The presiding officer shall state every question coming before the Local, and before allowing debate thereon, and again immediately before putting it to a vote, shall ask: Are you ready for the question? Should no member rise to speak the question shall then be put.
4. A motion to be entertained by the presiding officer must be moved and seconded; both mover and seconder must be recognized by the Chair.
5. A motion to amend, or to amend an amendment, shall be in order but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted. No amendment, or amendment to an amendment, which is a direct negative of the resolution shall be in order.
6. On motion the regular order of business may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present to deal with any urgent business.
7. All resolutions and motions other than those named in rule 17, or those to accept or adopt the report of a committee, shall, if requested by the presiding officer be presented in writing before being put to the membership.
8. At the request of any member and upon a majority vote of those present a question may be divided when the sense will allow it.
9. Any member having made a motion can withdraw it with the consent of the seconder except that any motion once debated cannot be withdrawn except by a majority vote of those present.
10. When a member wishes to speak on a question or to make a motion the member shall rise and respectfully address the presiding officer, but except to state that he/she rises to a point of order or on a question of privilege shall not proceed further until recognized by the chair.
11. When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall decide which one is entitled to the floor.
12. Every member, while speaking, shall adhere to the question under debate and avoid all personal, indecorous, or offensive language as well as any poor reflection on the Local or member thereof.
13. If a member, while speaking, is called to order he/she shall cease speaking until the point is determined; if it is decided he/she is in order, he/she may again proceed.
14. No religious discussion shall be permitted.
15. The chair shall take no part in debate while presiding but may yield the chair in order to speak on any question before the Local, or to introduce a new question.
16. The presiding officer shall have the same rights as other members to vote on any question. In case of a tie vote, the chair may cast the deciding vote if he/she has not already voted. If he/she chooses to refrain from breaking the tie the motion is lost.
17. When a motion is before the Local no other motion shall be in order except:
 - to adjourn
 - to put the previous question
 - to lay on the table
 - to postpone for an indefinite time

- to refer

- to divide or amend which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The first three shall be decided without debate.

18. A motion for the previous question, when regularly moved and seconded, shall be put in this form: Shall the main question now be put? If it is adopted the chair shall proceed to take the vote on the resolution and amendments thereto (if any) according to their priority. If an amendment or an amendment to an amendment is adopted, the original resolution as amended shall be put to the Local.
19. A motion to adjourn is in order except when a member has the floor or when members are voting. A motion to adjourn, having been put and lost, shall not be in order again if there is further business before the Local until fifteen minutes have elapsed.
20. After the presiding officer declares the vote on a question and before the Local proceeds to another order of business, any member may ask for a vote verification. A standing vote shall then be taken and the Secretary Treasurer shall count same.
21. If any member wishes to challenge (appeal) a decision of the chair the member must do so at the time the decision is made. If the challenge is seconded the member shall be asked to state briefly the basis for the challenge. The chair may then state briefly the basis for the decision, following which the chair shall immediately and without debate put the question: "Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?" A majority vote shall decide, except that in the case of a tie the Chair is sustained.
22. After a question has been decided any two members who have voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move reconsideration thereof.
23. No member shall enter or leave a meeting during the initiation of new members, the installation of officers, or the taking of a vote.
24. The Local's business and proceedings of meetings are not to be divulged to any persons outside the Local or the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

APPENDIX B TO THE BYLAWS OF CUPE LOCAL 15

CUPE Local 15 Equality Statement

Our local union solidarity is based on the principle that all members of CUPE Local 15 are equal and deserve mutual respect at all levels. Any behaviour that creates conflict within our local prevents us from working together to strengthen our union.

As members of CUPE Local 15, mutual respect, cooperation, and understanding are our goals. We should neither condone nor tolerate behavior that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any member, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment for them.

We believe that discriminatory speech or conduct which is racist, sexist, transphobic, or homophobic hurts and thereby divides us. So too, does discrimination on the basis of ability, age, class, religion, language, and ethnic origin.

Sometimes discrimination takes the form of harassment. Harassment means using real or perceived power to abuse, devalue or humiliate. Harassment should not be treated as a joke. The uneasiness and resentment that it creates are not feelings that help us meet the needs of our members or grow as a local union.

Discrimination and harassment focus on characteristics that make us different and they reduce our capacity to work together on shared concerns such as decent wages, working conditions, and justice in our workplaces and society, and in our union.

CUPE Local 15 policies and practices must reflect our commitment to equality. Members, staff, and elected officers must be mindful that all members deserve dignity, equality, and respect.
